When I first taught you on the subject of Yahweh's laws, we learned that Yahweh's laws are divided into four classes, commandments, judgments, statutes and ordinances. The commandments are the major rules governing man's duties to his God. The judgments are the rules governing man's relation to other men. The statutes are the general rules for the health, prosperity and peace of the nation. This includes the dietary, agricultural, social and economic laws. Finally, the ordinances are the religious regulations for the various festivals, sacrifices and offerings.

Of these laws, only the ordinances have been set aside by Yahshua in the New Testament. The rituals embodied in them were the expression of the Israelite's belief that his Redeemer would come, in the future. When Yahshua had come and performed the reality which these rituals symbolized, their usefulness ended. The believer could no longer say that he was waiting for the future coming of his Redeemer. The ordinances must be replaced by new rituals looking back to the fulfilled redemption.

The other laws of Yahweh are still in force. Thou shalt not steal, and thou shalt not commit adultery are still as important today as when Moses carried the stone tablets down Mount Sinai. However, we do not expect to gain our personal salvation by keeping the laws, this was never the purpose of the laws. We do expect to gain the peace, prosperity and good order of the community. We have tried to do this by enforcing the laws of our city, state, and our nation. Let no one be misled into thinking Yahweh's commandments, judgments, and statutes have been set aside by the New Testament, these are permanent laws. In Matthew 5:48 Yahshua tells us that Yahweh is perfect, naturally so are His laws. Psalm 19:7-9 tells us, "The law of Yahweh is perfect, converting the soul; the statutes of Yahweh are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of Yahweh is pure, enlightening the eyes, the judgments of Yahweh are true and righteous altogether."

People say Christianity is all spiritual, so we have abolished the law. Not so! In Romans 7:14, Paul tells us the law is spiritual. In Romans 3:31 Paul says, "Do we then make void the law through faith? Yahweh forbid: yea, we establish the law." Just as our perfect God exists forever, so do His perfect laws. Psalm 111:7-8 tells us, "The work of His hands are verity and judgment: all His commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness." Yahshua affirms in Matthew 5:18 that not the smallest part of the law will pass away, until heaven and earth pass away. Revelation chapter 21 shows us that this is not until after the millennium and Yahshua's triumphant 1,000 year reign.

Let us now consider some of these laws and what they mean to us today. Our political parties have sold Yahweh in an evil deal to get the support of the minority groups. They do this for the sake of temporary power and graft and by this would destroy all our greatness forever.

The politicians demand that we admit indiscriminately, all the world's overflow. They come from pagan lands whose people hate our God. They come from Asian and African lands, whose people are totally impossible to assimilate, which would be against Yahweh's laws for Israel. These immigrants must either remain a hostile enemy bloc within our borders, or else mongrelize and destroy our own race if we mix with them. Yahweh expressly forbids this.

While it is recognized that there will be some aliens here as students, merchants, etc., these are to be treated with honesty and justice. The anti Christians, who hate Yahweh, are expressly forbidden to be allowed to live here. In Exodus 23:33 Yahweh says, "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." No aliens were to be allowed to become too numerous, lest they "devour the land." Isaiah 1:7 or "the people's strength" Hosea 7:9, and "fill themselves with the people's wealth", Proverbs 5:10. Ecclesiasticus 11:34 warns us that if we "receive a stranger into thine house, he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own."

Have you ever wondered at the long genealogies of the various people mentioned in the Bible? There was a good reason for this. Their genealogy proved that they were of pure Israel blood and entitled to take part in its affairs. Citizenship was not given for two box tops and a dime, or to all that came along. Those who were of related blood lines, but not actually of Israel, could only be admitted to citizenship in the third generation born in the land.

Today, an immigrant scarcely needs to be off the boat long enough to get over their seasickness, before he can start the process of becoming a citizen. Far too short a time is required for aliens from some parts of the world, to really learn our way of life. They can and do, memorize certain things they must be able to recite on their examination for citizenship. However, these things pertain to the mechanics of our government, not the ideals which led the founding fathers to use these mechanics to make us great. Under Yahweh's laws, those who were not closely related to us in race could not be admitted to citizenship ever. They could not become citizens even after ten generations, Deuteronomy chapter 23.

By violating Yahweh's laws, we now have considerable blocs of unassimilable aliens who have been given the vote. They hate all the ideals of this land to which they have come, only to get more money. Now our political parties are selling out the great white American majority, in bidding for the support of the alien minority groups.

Under Yahweh's laws, nobody of another race is to be allowed to hold public office. Deuteronomy 17:15 says, "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, one which is not thy brother." The word translated stranger, is the Hebrew word nokri which doesn't mean someone you haven't met, but one of another race. That persons of another race could reach positions of power is clearly stated to be a curse which comes upon us for our violation of divine law. Deuteronomy 28:15, 43-45 states, “But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of Yahweh thy God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee ... The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high, and thou shalt come down very low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him; he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail ... because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of Yahweh thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee.”

We have been persistently led away from the laws of Yahweh by certain political groups who don't even claim to represent the majority of our people, the white Christian Americans. These politicians openly admit they represent only alliances of minority groups. These politicians call themselves liberal. This was also known to Yahweh thousands of years before it happened, Yahweh also told us their true character. In Isaiah chapter 32, the prophet is telling us of that time yet to come, when the kingdom of Yahweh will be fully established and operating as it should be. He tells us that then, “The vile person shall no more be called liberal.” Yahweh speed the day!

For many decades politicians have betrayed us, the great white majority, seeking the support of certain disloyal minorities. The result has been the adoption of policies, both at home and abroad, which have brought us to our present position. We are facing a war in which we must fight for our very existence. If we had obeyed Yahweh in the making of our laws and our national policies, these evils would not have come upon us.

Isaiah 48:17-18, 22 tells the story. “Thus saith Yahweh, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yahweh thy God, which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea. There is no peace, saith Yahweh, unto the wicked.”

What wickedness? Ours, in letting evil and treacherous political considerations displace the laws of Yahweh. Replacing the laws with platforms written to see who can stoop to the lowest baseness to buy minority votes. When will we learn only by following the righteous laws of Yahweh, can we gain the peace and prosperity of Yahweh's people?

Critical note by Clifton A. Emahiser: Again, Comparet did a great job, although I will point to a few places where he could have done a little better. He stated: “The other laws of Yahweh are still in force. Thou shalt not steal, and thou shalt not commit adultery are still as important today as when Moses carried the stone tablets down Mount Sinai.” Comparet should have pointed out that adultery is the mixing of one's race with the non-Adamic. The 10th commandment covers another man's wife!

Further he stated: “Revelation chapter 21 shows us that this is not until after the millennium and Yahshua's triumphant 1,000 year reign.” Again, I must disagree with a future millennium, as that period of time is already past. Satan being chained in a bottomless pit is emblematic of the “Jews” being confined to the ghettos. Satan (the “Jews”) were loosed from the bottomless pit when they gained monetary power over the kingly leaders of our people (mainly the house of Rothschild).

Additionally, Comparet states: “Ecclesiasticus 11:34 warns us that if we ‘receive a stranger into thine house, he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own’.” I would say that Ecclesiasticus 12:5 states it even better. That passage reads: “Do well unto him that is lowly, but give not to the ungodly: hold back thy bread, and give it not unto him, lest he overmaster thee thereby: for [else] thou shalt receive twice as much evil for all the good thou shalt have done unto him.” (The “ungodly” being the non-Adamic races.)
