Recorded in Scripture are nine major Covenants between Yahweh and Adam-man. They are as follows: (1) Edenic, (2) Adamic, (3) Noahic, (4) Abrahamic, (5) Mosaic, (6) Palestinian, (7) Davidic, (8) Solomonic, and (9) The New Covenant. This does not include the Covenant made separately with Sarah. With these various Covenants, there are several elements. All of these Covenants are made exclusively and only with the descendants of Adam. Contrary to modern tradition, Adam was the father of the White race only.

THE EDENIC COVENANT

Genesis 1:28-29: “ And [Yahweh-singular] Elohim blessed them, and Elohim said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.”

The Edenic Covenant made Adam, being created in Yahweh's own image, responsible to multiply, populate and subdue the earth. Adam was, therefore, given the office of priest-kingship and became Yahweh's vice-regent, being accountable to Him in all his realm. Adam not only became king, but also high priest; making him Yahweh's representative on earth to rule over all things therein. Thus, he found himself in charge of the whole visible creation before him, to contemplate and to make himself comfortable therewith. He was different from all men that had been before, inasmuch as he was both flesh and Spirit. The new element in the creation of Adam was being “in the image” and after the “likeness” of Yahweh Himself. In this context, it showed his ability to have communion with Yahweh; and later made the Incarnation of the Word possible. In being fruitful, Adam became responsible for bringing forth a race after his own likeness. Contrary to today's pseudo-science, considering all the varieties found among men, they are not all of the same family or species.

Genesis 2:7: “ And Yahweh Elohim formed Adam of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and Adam became a living soul (spirit).”

This is the account of the creation of Adam. While forming his body from the dust, only the impartation of Yahweh's breath made him a living Spirit-man. The term “ruddy” is used for Adam as his descendants are the only men and women who can show blood in the face. The word yasar portrays the figure of a potter at work, molding with his hands the plastic material he holds. Being fashioned from the dust of the ground, the Spirit came from the “breath” of Yahweh. He is literally a creature of two worlds; both earth and heaven claim him. Hence, Yahweh is not only the former, but the Father of spirits:

Genesis 2:18: “And Yahweh Elohim said, it is not good that Adam should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.”

Time brought the need for a helper who would be compatible to himself. His bride was formed from one of his ribs taken from his side as he slept. Upon receiving her, Adam was given head-ship over her. Adam, by being in charge, found himself responsible for any and all of Eve’s actions. Therefore, when Eve ate of the forbidden fruit, it was the same as if Adam had eaten of it himself. (There are other ramifications to this story which I don’t have room enough to present here.) Because Adam was the son of Yahweh, Eve’s sin, through Adam, was placed upon Yahweh’s head. Because Yahweh was married to Israel, when we as Israel sinned, it was laid to Yahweh’s charge. That is why He had to suffer death in our place. Thus, Adam became responsible for his own household throughout the ages (1 Corinthians 11:8-9). Shame wrought from either party reflects on the other, but, in the end, is charged to the Almighty for He is their maker. In creating Eve, her flesh was of Adam’s flesh. The only way a couple can be of one flesh is to marry one of their own race.

Ephesians 5:30-31: “For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (one race).”

THE ADAMIC COVENANT

Hardly had Eve been given to Adam as a mate of his own flesh and bone than Satan entered the scene representing the family tree they were warned not to “eat” or “touch” (Hebrew terms, in this case, having sexual connotations). Thus, Yahweh placed a curse on the product of that unholy union, initiating a continual life and death struggle between the offspring of the serpent and her offspring. The woman’s seed, therefore, is not that of the serpent, but of Adam. The Adamic covenant reads as follows:

Genesis 3:14-15: “And Yahweh said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field, upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shall thou eat all the days of thy life. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her [Adam’s] seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.”

Since Eve’s seed is the same as Adam’s, the war of Genesis 3:15 is between Adam’s descendants and Cain’s. Nowhere in the Bible is Cain included in the genealogy of Adam, and the descendants of Cain, to this day, trace their lineage through their mother. Genesis 3:15 is called “The Protevangelion” which means “first Gospel”, therefore, no Gospel message is complete without it. It predicts a perpetual ongoing hostility between the descendants of Satan and the woman (she representing White mankind). The power of Satan was ultimately to be destroyed by the very offspring of Adam and Eve whom he had deceived. Though the seed of the woman are many, ONE would come to destroy the descendants of the serpent and their works. Adam is not mentioned in the Protevangelion (Genesis 3:15), therefore, the address is not to Adam and Eve, but to Eve and the serpent alone. Some suppose this passage to apply to a certain "enmity" between men and serpents (snakes); this is fantasy rather than reality. The cursed serpent was to "eat dust", and that is why today they live off the refuse of junkyards and landfills. By the way, there is not a single snake species which eats and digests dust as its food. Here, the "dust" is symbolical of the serpent's sauce rather than his meat; while creeping and groveling upon the earth, in taking food, he must necessarily also consume the dust and filth. That is why today's "Jews" make a lot of money from pornography and everything immoral. Not until the total destruction of one or the other will the enmity of the two seeds end. The Protevangelion is therefore the earliest pronouncement of the Gospel; the long conflict between the literal children of Yahweh and the literal children of the evil one ... (The International Bible Commentary by F.F. Bruce, page 118.)

THE NOAHIC COVENANT

Genesis 6:18: "But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee."

Genesis 9:1, 7, 8, 9, 11: "And Yahweh blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth ... bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein ... And Yahweh spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you ... neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth."

We could go into a long dissertation concerning the various details of Noah's flood, but in this limited space it is paramount to demonstrate the most important facts. First of all, the purpose for the flood was to destroy from the face of earth the products of mixed-race marriages. The reason Noah and his family were preserved is because they were "perfect in their generations." Here, the Hebrew word for "generations" means "race", Wilson's Old Testament Word Studies, by William Wilson, page 184. Wilson specifically designates Genesis 6:9.

Yahweh made a covenant with Noah that: "neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood." But, it is more serious than it sounds, for it is recorded at a future time, under similar circumstances; and for the same reasons, that the same thing will happen, except by fire:

2 Peter 3:6-7: "Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men." (See also: Ob. 18; Ezk. 39:6, 9; Mt. 13:42)

One can almost visualize in their mind a holy fire from the Almighty moving at the speed of light in and out of every home where one of these resides, severing out and destroying those of mixed race; probably similar to 2 Kings 9-14 where fire came down out of heaven and destroyed two squads of 50 men of the king in Elijah's presence. If this analogy is true, with all the multiculturalism and miscegenation that is going on in our present day, it would appear the undertakers all over the world are going to be quite busy.

THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT

⇒ Genesis 13:16: “And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed be also numbered.”
⇒ Genesis 15:5: “And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.” ⇒ Genesis 15:9-10: “And he (Yahweh) said unto him (Abram), Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.” ⇒ Genesis 17:4-7: “As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shall be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be an Elohim unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.” ⇒ Genesis 22:15-18: “And the angel of Yahweh called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, And said, By myself have I sworn, saith Yahweh, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; And in thy seed shall all the [Israel] nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.” [Israel blessed primarily; others indirectly.] ⇒ Genesis 28:13-15: “... I am Yahweh the Mighty One of Abraham thy father, and the Mighty One of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the [Israel] families of the earth be blessed [i.e., Mark 7:27-28]. And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.” ⇒ Genesis 32:12, 28: “And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude ... And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with Yahweh and with men, and hast prevailed.” ⇒ Genesis 35:11: “And Yahweh said unto him (Jacob), I am Yahweh Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins.”

While not all the above is promised directly to Abraham, these passages are all basically The Abrahamic Covenant. These promises constitute the basic message of the entire Bible, and are speaking of Yahweh's Kingdom. Because space will not allow it, I cannot go into all the details of the Abrahamic Covenant in this presentation. I did a paper entitled Born Under Contract in which I covered most of the particulars of which you may want to obtain a copy.

In that paper, it was explained that, if one is born of a certain lineage, he is under the above Covenants from his very first breath, which he cannot in any way annul; how anyone else wanting to be under the Covenants is excluded; that those who are under these binding obligations will be chastised until they finally comply with the terms set forth, and how they have no choice in the matter. If you are of an Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic, Scottish, Irish, Danish, Dutch, French, northern Italian, White Spanish or related background, you are under these Covenants whether you approve of them or not.

The Kingdom is spoken of in the book of Revelation, chapter 21, as a city four-square having twelve gates, and is called the New Jerusalem. It is not an ordinary city like Detroit, Indianapolis, Denver or someplace like that, which, when we arrive, we see a city-limits sign telling us where we are. We are told this city has foundations made up of jasper, sapphire, chalcedony, emerald and many other precious stones. These very same stones were in the breastplate of the priests. Therefore, these foundation stones represent the people that make up the twelve Tribes of Israel. This city has a great high wall, and on each of its four sides are three gates with the names of the twelve patriarchs. Therefore, the only way to enter that city is by way of the patriarch of one's lineage. The great high wall separates those on the inside from those on the outside. It is, therefore, a wall of racial segregation. Though the enemy today is persistently trying, in all his power, to break down this wall, it has a very firm foundation, and, in the end, he will fail.

THE MOSAIC COVENANT

There is much that could be said concerning the Mosaic Covenant, such as the exclusion of relationships to other foreign sovereign powers. Broadly speaking, the Mosaic Covenant included the Ten Commandments portraying one's duty to the Almighty and his fellow Adamic man. No society can long exist without laws and ordinances for they will revert to anarchy. Thus, was commanded blessings for obedience and cursings for disobedience of Yahweh's Laws. Adam-Israel is the only people who have ever been under the Law of Yahweh. Not going into all of this in detail, we will dwell mainly on the most important feature of the Mosaic Covenant; the marriage of Israel to Yahweh:

Deuteronomy 26:17-18: "Thou hast avouched Yahweh this day to be thy Elohim, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice: And Yahweh hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments." (These are Israel's wedding vows.)

Later, Israel would break these vows, making it mandatory for Yahweh to divorce her. By Law, the two parties could never remarry unless one or the other were to die. By Yahweh coming in Adam's flesh and dying at Calvary, He made it possible for a reuniting of the two parties, which is defined as Redemption.

THE PALESTINIAN COVENANT

Deuteronomy 30:19: “ I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.”

While this is not the Palestinian Covenant in itself, this is the warning for not obeying the provisions thereof:

Deuteronomy 28:1, 15: “ And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of Yahweh thy Elohim, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that Yahweh thy Elohim will set thee on high above all nations of the earth ... But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of Yahweh thy Elohim, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.”

To understand, it would be necessary to read all the blessings and cursings of Deuteronomy chapters 27 & 28. Yahweh had commissioned Israel to kill every member of the race-mixed group of Canaanite nations, man, woman and child without mercy, Exodus 15:14-16; 23:32-33; 34:11-12; Deuteronomy 7:1-3; 20:16-17. Not only did they refuse to destroy those peoples, they adopted some of their abominable ways which brought the cursings upon them. I am going to use only one example of the cursings, Deuteronomy 28:43-44: “ The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.” This has been literally fulfilled in the central banks which are today in all Israel lands. In the United States, we have the “Jewish” communist controlled Federal Reserve System (fifth plank of the Karl Marx manifesto). This is the same agency which collects the Federal communist income tax under the name of The Internal Revenue Service (second plank of the Karl Marx manifesto). As the curse says, we will borrow from the “Jew”, but he will not borrow from us. Ironically, the “Jews” are the same people we refused to destroy when we were in Palestine.

THE DAVIDIC COVENANT

1 Samuel 16:13: “ Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the spirit of Yahweh came upon David from that day forward.”

Psalms 89: 34-37: “ My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once I have sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven.”

Jeremiah 33:20-21: “ Thus saith Yahweh; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne ...”

David, as a lad, was a shepherd. He spent many days and nights tending his father's sheep. The sheep could never be left alone for there were a tremendous number of wolves in those days. Because of the gun, in our day, the wolf population has been brought under control. David's defense against the wolves was a slingshot. No doubt, he practiced by the hour to become proficient with it, so, when it became necessary, he could kill a wolf with the first shot. Later, as a young man, he would put his skill to good use by killing a giant. Thus, David the warrior killed many men; a man after Messiah's own heart foreshadowing His glorious return.

Many might say, “Yahweh has broken his word to David, as the Throne of David was nonexistent in Palestine for nearly 600 years during the inter-testament period.” Though Zedekiah was taken captive by Babylon, and all of his sons killed before his eyes, he still had an heir, because in Israel there was a provision for daughters to inherit the throne if there were no male descendants (Numbers 27:7-8). Therefore, Jeremiah took Zedekiah's two daughters (Ezekiel 17:22-24) to Spain and Ireland. No sooner had Jeremiah arrived in Ireland with Tea Tephi (Zedekiah's daughter of the Pharez royal family) than he arranged for her marriage to Eochaidh, the Heremonn, a prince of the Tuatha de Danaans on his mother's side and a direct descendant of Fenesia Farsa, and thus of the line of Zerah, twin brother of Pharez of the Royal House of Judah, uniting the Royal House of Pharez and the Royal House of Zerah. Lastly, Yahshua, at His First Advent, became priest, but He is yet to be crowned King at His Second Advent.

THE SOLOMONIC COVENANT

2 Samuel 7:12-16: “And when thy (David's) days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He (Solomon) shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: But my mercy shall not depart away from him ... And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.”

What we must understand is: our Messiah got His authority from Solomon's throne, but He was not from Solomon's bloodline. Actually, Yahshua was from the bloodline of Mary through Nathan, Solomon's brother. Solomon's line followed on down through Judah's Kings to Jeconiah, when a curse was placed that none of Jeconiah's seed would ever again sit on the throne, Jeremiah 22:30. At the time of the Incarnation, Mary's husband, Joseph, was a descendant of the cursed Jeconiah. Because Yahshua became the legal son of Joseph, Joseph was able to pass on the throne to the Messiah without the curse falling on Him. Although Solomon's bloodline didn't follow on down to the Messiah, it did bypass Jeconiah's curse through Zedekiah's daughter, Tea Tephi, going on to Ireland.

THE NEW COVENANT

Hebrews 8:8-11 & (Jeremiah 31:31-32): “... Behold the days come saith Yahweh, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith Yahweh. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith Yahweh; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them an Elohim, and they shall be to me a people. And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know Yahweh: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.”

It's saying here that the teaching of, “you must know the Lord” is going to be discontinued. It's simply amazing, for this is exactly what Judeo-churchianity is teaching today. It's incredible, because it was never true in the first place, for He does the choosing, not us.

Many today call themselves “New Testament Christians.” The question arises: What is a New Testament Christian, anyway? Some seem to be under the impression that the Old Testament dealt with the “Jews” and the Law; that somehow the Almighty had been unsuccessful with the “Jews” and, when they rejected Him, He decided to extend the plan of salvation to the so-called “Gentiles.” Many flatly state the New Testament church is not connected with Old Testament Law; that the Law was abandoned at the Cross and the emphasis is now on Grace, suggesting “whosoever” may come. Since the expression “New Testament Christian” is used so widely, maybe it would be well if someone would explain what the of the term “testament” means. Just what is this New Testament? If one is going to use the term, and teach it to others, they surely ought to know what the term means! Both the word “covenant” and the word “testament” come from the Greek word #1242 in the Strongs Concordance. Both words simply mean “contract.” All these nine Covenants we have been considering are thus contracts.

In a covenant or contract, it is important to have all the parties named, as no contract without naming the parties is worth the paper and ink. So, too, the contract must specify the performance expected from each of the parties spelled out in legal terms. Contracts are binding on all parties, and each of them can legally force the others to perform exactly as set forth. Well, who are the parties of the New Testament? Does your Bible specify the party of the second part as the “Gentiles”, or “whosoever will?” The answer is NO! This exclusive contract is made only with two entities: the House of Israel and the House of Judah! The next question is: If you are not a member of either of these two houses, what right do you have to the New Testament contract, whatever the legal terms are? It's obvious, you don't have any right whatsoever!

Some argue the “Gentiles” are “grafted” in, and are granted a place under the Covenant. One should be reminded that only olive branches can be grafted into olive trees. It should be noted, the olive tree is Israel's symbol, so it is not talking about someone else. Others argue non-Israelite Gentiles became “spiritual Israel.” No such term exists in all Scripture! Therefore, the parties named in the New Testament are the same parties of the Old Testament! Almighty Yahweh has not changed His mind and abandoned His people Israel and Judah in favor of “all men” or “whosoever will”, but made His New Testament with the very same people as before. What legal right would the Almighty have for changing the parties mentioned in the contract in the middle of the stream? We may break the terms for our obligations, but Yahweh would never think of such a thing; and it is blasphemous for anyone to even suggest such a thing, for it accuses Him of fraud by forgery.

The plain truth is: the New Testament was never made for a so-called “church”, “Gentiles”, or “whosoever”, and the Bible never suggests otherwise. Rather, it specifies a very distinct racial and national entity, with implications based on Yahweh’s Law. The New Testament went into effect the very instant Yahshua died and gave up the ghost.

Contrary to some, Yahweh does not promote universalism! What is universalism but Catholicism? What is Catholicism, but pluralism? What is pluralism, but multiculturalism? What is multiculturalism, but International Jewish Communism? What is International Jewish Communism, but Covenant-defrauding, modern-day Judeo-churchianity?
