

Covenant Theology vs. Replacement Theology

The following is a reply letter from me to one of my cousins, who is a churchianity judeotard, wanting to bring all the nonwhite, unclean, race-mixed bipeds (not created by the Almighty) into our Kingdom of Heaven and violate the Covenant given exclusively to Abraham, Isaac, and the twelve tribes of Israel and their descendants! I have tried very vigorously (evidently to no avail), sending pertinent material to him in favor of Covenant Theology, and against replacement theology!

July 18, 2017

Dear Merrill (Samuel),

Received your letter of 7-12-17 a few days ago, along with a miniature 2½" x 2" booklet with 16 pages, published by Amazing Grace Mission; P.O. Box 289; Dayton, TN 37321, and distributed by the First Baptist Church; P.O. Box 87; Bettsville, Ohio 44815.

You stated in your letter: "God has made of one blood all the nations of the earth (Acts 17:26). God is not willing that any should perish (II Pet. 2:9). We are all the same before God. God is no respecter of persons (Romans 2:11)."

Merrill Jr., I am sure that I sent you sufficient data from several sources to confirm the word "blood" is not found in many of the older Manuscripts at Acts 17:26, but evidently you did not study the matter thoroughly enough "to show yourself approved" of God, the God whom you quote so freely out-of-context!

To show you I'm not without adequate evidence on this fact, I searched through my several Bibles and found ten without the word "blood" at Acts 17:26 thusly: (1) American Standard Version, (2) Douay-Rheims Version, (3) English Standard Version, which has "one man" (not "one blood"), (4) New American Version, (5) New International Version, which has "from one man", (6) New International Version (1984), which has "from one man". (7) The Living Bible, which has "from one man", (8) Revised Standard Version, (9) Smith & Goodspeed version, which has "from one forefather" (not "one blood"), (10) the Waymouth New Testament, which has "offspring from one forefather". And that forefather could only have been Adam (who was a White man who could show blood in his face, i.e., have the ability to blush, Strong's Hebrew #H119)!

Merrill Jr., inasmuch as you cited Acts 17:26, I will quote it from the Revised Standard Version:

"And he made from one every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their habitation ..." [Note: no "blood"]

The center-reference in my King James Bible directs me to Deut. 32:8, which reads:

"⁸ When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of men, he fixed the bounds of the peoples according to the number of the sons of the Almighty. ⁹ For Yahweh's portion is his people, Jacob his allotted heritage." That doesn't sound like, "We are all the same before God."

Merrill Jr., You failed to keep the Bible entirely in its proper context by ignoring Deut. 32:8, as it is referring only to Jacob's heritage (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob & the twelve tribes of Israel and their descendants are a collective, as one, like the word "seed" is a collective singular), not, "We are all the same before God." Inasmuch as you next cited 2 Peter 3:9, I will quote it from my KJV:

“Yahweh is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” Note: “us-ward” doesn’t sound like, “We are all the same before God.” To see just what the correct Biblical context should be, I will quote Ezek. 33:11:

“Say unto them, As I live, saith Yahweh Almighty, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?” This, again, doesn’t sound like, “We are all the same before God.”

Merrill Jr., I have now shot down two of your flawed premises which have led you to two mistaken conclusions. Inasmuch as you cited Romans 2:11, I will address that one next by quoting it from my KJV:

“For there is no respect of persons with Yahweh. This verse has its counter part at Deut. 10:12-17:

“¹² And now, Israel, what doth Yahweh thy Almighty require of thee, but to fear Yahweh thy Almighty, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Yahweh thy Almighty with all thy heart and with all thy soul, ¹³ To keep the commandments of Yahweh, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good? ¹⁴ Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is Yahweh’s thy Almighty, the earth also, with all that therein is. ¹⁵ Only Yahweh had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. ¹⁶ Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. ¹⁷ For Yahweh your Almighty is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward ...” It should be evident here that Paul was quoting this Old Testament passage at Romans 2:11. Now we know who the persons are of Romans 2:11, for they are the descendants of the Israelites at Deut. 10:12-17! (See also Acts 10:34 & Eph. 6:9, as Cornelius and family were lost Israelites.)

Also, “...the Jew first, and also the Gentile” at Romans 2:9, 10 is very misleading and causes much confusion! Gentile is a Latin word and was never used by any of the writers of the Old or New Testaments. The term “Jew” has three contexts, (1) a true member of the tribe of Judah, (2) a resident of Judea, and (3) Edomite-jew, a tribe of Edomites who were converted to Judaism about 110 B.C., Josephus’ Antiquities bk. 13; ch. 10; par. 1.

Merrill Jr., I have now contextually, critiqued the Bible passages you cited to me in your 7-12-17 letter. I will now remark in regard to careless interpretations made in the miniature 2½" x 2" booklet you sent me with 16 pages, published by Amazing Grace Mission; P.O. Box 289; Dayton, TN 37321, and distributed by the First Baptist Church; P.O. Box 87; Bettsville, Ohio 44815.

Now citing the work by the Amazing Grace Mission, a judeotard organization:

• “DO YOU EVER FEEL LIKE NOBODY CARES? • “WELL, GOD CARES! • “He Knows All About You And He Sends You This Message, • “What Is A Christian? Are You A Christian? • “After you have answered this question, read the next four Bible verses. Then you will know whether you really are a Christian as taught by the Word of God. • “The Bible says, ‘For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God’, Romans chapter 3, verse 23.

Here the Amazing Grace Mission first cites Romans 3:23 out-of-context, so I will now quote it here from my KJV:

“For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of Yahweh ...”

In answer to this citation, I will quote Amos 3:2 thusly:

“You [Israel] only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.” Yahweh cannot chastise unless that person already belongs to Him. When Abraham placed Isaac on an Altar, Isaac and all of his descendants became the personal property of Yahweh, and if they disobeyed His Commandments, He could punish them as He saw fit!

Also Psalm 78:4: “For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children ...”

Also Psalm 78:4: “¹⁹ He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. ²⁰ He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye Yahweh.

Amazing Grace Mission continues by stating: “Have you ever lied or taken anything that belonged to someone else? Then you have sinned, haven’t you? • The Bible says: ‘For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.’ Romans chapter 6, verse 23, • “That’s right, sin separated us from God.

• “If we die in our sins, we are eternally lost and forever separated from God. But God offers another way. Since you now admit your sin, and Jesus as the only way, we can have eternal life free as a gift. This means we can’t earn it by being good, or by going to church, or by baptism, or anything else. We simply receive it as a free gift through Jesus Christ, God’s Son. • The Bible says, ‘But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God ...’, John chapter 1, verse 12;

The Amazing Grace Mission secondly quoted John 1:12 out-of-context, so I will now quote it here from my KJV:

“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of Yahweh, even to them that believe on his name ...”

My KJV center-reference directs me to Gal. 3:26, and I will quote vv. 26 & 29 to arrive at a proper context:

“26 For ye are all the children of Yahweh by faith in Christ Yahshua ... 29 And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

The Amazing Grace Mission has butchered John 1:12 out-of-context beyond all reason by not identifying the “who” of this passage, and the “who” are “...Abraham’s seed ...”, and no other! This is simply cherry-picking of the Scriptures by the Amazing Grace Mission! It is important that we know the who, what, where, when, why, and how of every passage of Scripture in the Bible!

The “who” of the “promise” is spelled out quite clearly at Jer. 31:31-33 and Heb. 8:8-10. Both passages read almost word-for-word, so I will quote Jeremiah:

“³¹ Behold, the days come, saith Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: ³² Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith Yahweh: ³³ But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel (all twelve tribes); After those days, saith Yahweh, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their Almighty, and they shall be my people.”

There is absolutely no room here for mud-sharks, squat-monsters or “whosoever” to be squeezed into the Kingdom of Yahweh in the flesh, as Yahshua the Christ (the Anointed). Once Yahweh has given us his Sacred Word in a Covenant, He will not alter the beneficiaries of that Covenant as Malachi 3:6 distinctly states:

“For I am Yahweh, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” So the above Covenant still stands, and will continue to remain forever!

The Amazing Grace Mission continues thusly: • “Suppose you had an incurable disease, and one day you read of a doctor who had discovered the cure for that disease. Let’s suppose he offered to give you this cure free. • “What would your answer be – receive it and be cured, or refuse it and be lost? • “You can have faith that doctor’s medicine will cure you, but unless you receive it personally, you are still lost. • “HAVE YOU TAKEN THE STEP OF FAITH TO RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST PERSONALLY AS YOUR SAVIOR? • “Jesus said, ‘Behold, I stand at the door, and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him ...’, Revelation chapter 3, verse 20.

Amazing Grace Mission added this comment: • “When the Lord says, ‘Behold, I stand at the door’ He is speaking about the very door of your heart. If your best friend knocked at the door of your house, what would you say to him? • YOU WOULD SAY ‘COME IN’ WOULDNT YOU?’: [Note: Like the word “blood” is not at Acts 17:26, neither is the word “heart” at Rev. 3:20, C.A.E.]

The Amazing Grace Mission went on to say: • “Friend, the Lord Jesus is knocking at your heart’s door right now. • “WILL YOU RECEIVE HIM? WILL YOU INVITE HIM INTO YOUR HEART AND LIFE? • “WHICH ? CHOICE DID YOU MAKE • “JESUS CHRIST AS MY SAVIOR.

I received

I rejected

The Amazing Grace Mission continues by asserting: • “Jesus said, ‘He that is not with me is against me’, Matthew 12, verse 30.

• “WHO IS A CHRISTIAN? • “You are a Christian if you saw your need of help and accepted Jesus as the only way, and personally invited Jesus Christ to become Lord of your life. • “Now that you have prayed and received Jesus, where is He right now?

• “ANSWER: He is in your heart and life.

• “How do you know? • “Jesus said, ‘I WILL come in’, Revelation chapter 3, verse 20 & the 1st letter of John, chapter 5, verse 11-13. • “God can now accept you into His family because all of your sins – past, present, and future – have been placed on His Son, Jesus Christ. The Bible says that God was in Christ no longer counting men’s sins against them but blotting them out. • “For God took the sinless Christ and laid on Him our sins. Then, in exchange, He gives God’s goodness to us!

JUST WHO ACCEPTS OR CHOOSES WHOM?

Under the Covenants of the Bible, Almighty Yahweh chose Abraham, Isaac, Jacob (called Israel), and all the twelve tribes of Israel (or thirteen, depending on how one may count them) and all of their pure genetic descendants, and that is what is meant by the phrase “Covenant Theology”! If one is under this Biblical Covenant, he cannot choose not to be under it. On the other hand if one is not under this Biblical Covenant, he can not choose to somehow to be included under it. Only those who are under this Biblical Covenant can be considered Christians (meaning anointed ones from their conception)! The Amazing Grace Mission is teaching just the opposite, by giving the children's bread to the dogs. Matt. 15:26, or "replacement theology", plain and simple!

The Amazing Grace Mission thirdly cited Revelation 3:20 out-of-context, and I will quote it here from my KJV:

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

To get a handle on a proper context, I will cite Luke 12:36-37, from my KJV:

"³⁶ And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. ³⁷ Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them."

Also Matt. 22:12-13: "¹² And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. ¹³ Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Throughout time immemorial wedding garments have been white, but what we have here is a mud-shark, squat-monster, nonwhite, half-breed (i.e., bastard) or "whosoever" crashing the wedding party!

Also Matt. 8:10-11, which I will cite from my KJV:

"¹⁰ When Yahshua heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. ¹¹ And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the children of the [sic this] kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

[Note: I followed the Smith & Goodspeed's Bible version where the "Kingdom" of verse 11 is capitalized, while the kingdom of verse 12 is not capitalized, indicating two different kingdoms, where the KJV didn't make this detail quite so clear! Therefore, I adjusted this feature with the KJV for the reader's benefit. C.A.E.]

The Amazing Grace Mission fourthly and lastly cites Matt. 12:30 out of context, and I will quote vv. 30 & 31 here from my KJV:

"³⁰ He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. ³¹ Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men."

The Amazing Grace Mission should have taken notice of the word "Wherefore" as it makes a direct union, connecting vv. 30 & 31 together, and to quote only half a verse as Amazing Grace Mission did, without the other one and a half verses, shows scholastic dishonesty!

To make a long story short, "the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost" is race-mixing, 1 John 3:9 from my KJV:

"Whosoever is born of Yahweh doth not commit sin; for his seed (i.e., sperm) remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of Yahweh."

The Almighty Yahweh commanded against this sin at Exo. 20:14, quoting from my KJV: “Thou shalt not commit adultery”, which in the Greek of the New Testament is covered under the term of “fornication”.

Merrill Jr., neither in your letter, nor the miniature 2½" x 2" booklet with 16 pages, published by Amazing Grace Mission; P.O. Box 289; Dayton, TN 37321, and distributed by the First Baptist Church; P.O. Box 87; Bettsville, Ohio 44815, brought up the Biblical term, “redemption”. This is important, as only a kinsman can redeem another kinsman, so to be redeemed by Yahshua Christ, one must be a blood relative of Christ (that is, in His family tree). The subject of kinsman redemption is clearly spelled out at Lev. 25:48-49, which I will quote from my KJV:

“⁴⁸ After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him: ⁴⁹ Either his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.”

At Colossians 1:13-14 we find more on redemption, in context with the Scripture:

“¹³ Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: ¹⁴ In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins ...”

Amazing Grace Mission has everything backward, as we definitely cant “receive” ... Christ “as the Saviour and Lord of ... life”, but we must trust that we were redeemed (i.e., purchased back) 2,000 years ago. Therefore, we don’t accept Christ, rather He accepted us, and we accept His Redemption (or purchasing us back) into His sheepfold, from whence we were divorced (cf. Hosea 2:7):

0“And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband [Yahweh]; for then was it better with me than now.”

Here we have Yahweh and the twelve tribes of Israel as Husband and wife. But Yahweh’s own Law forbids a wife to return to her first husband, after being divorced as at Deut, 24:1, which states:

“¹ When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. ² And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man’s wife.”

So, Yahweh decided to come in the flesh so He could die, and thereby be able, by His own Law, to remarry the twelve tribes of Israel back to Himself by His Redemption! Generally, what is not understood in nominal churchianity is the momentous fact that Almighty Yahweh created only the White Adamic race, and that the other races are a corruption of fallen angels with animal kind, and even Adamic kind at Gen. 6:1-4. Yahshua Christ stated at Matt. 15:10: “But he answered [the Pharisees] and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.”

At Jer. 15:10 we find: “Yet I had planted thee [Judah] a noble vine, wholly a right [pure White racial] seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate [race-mixed] plant of a strange [i.e., in Hebrew, nok-ree] vine unto me? [Note: “strange” of the very worst kind, C.A.E]

Evidently, Amazing Grace Mission has not studied the parables and idioms found in the Bible, which Christ purposely used so the “degenerate plants” wouldn’t grasp them!
