A MONTHLY TEACHING LETTER

This is my one hundred and sixty-first monthly teaching letter and continues my fourteenth year of publication. I started this series entitled The Greatest Love Story Ever Told with WTL #137, giving a general overview, which I am expanding on with a more detailed seven stages of the story as follows: (1) the courtship, (2) the marriage, (3) the honeymoon, (4) the estrangement, (5) the divorce, (6) the reconciliation, and (7) the remarriage. From time to time I have had to interrupt this comprehensive presentation, in order to address undue conjecture from some less-than-enlightened individuals who attempt to interject information which the Bible absolutely does not support. Like some have wisely said in the past: "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing!" But in spite of all hell, these clowns insist on exposing their ignorance to everyone around them, even writing 40 to 50 pages of ranting diatribe, sending it worldwide in E-mails, and posting it on Internet websites!

THE GREATEST LOVE STORY EVER TOLD, Part 24 YAHWEH'S HONEYMOON WITH THE TWELVE TRIBES continued:

Upon preparing for this lesson, I came to realize the need to examine the circumstances surrounding the honeymoon activities of the very first wedding that took place in the garden of Eden between Adam and Eve. Then, as today, the factors of that wedding weren't the ideal, as there had been premarital sexual activity of the worst kind. Yahweh's Sovereign Will for every candidate for betrothal (both Adamic-man and Adamic-woman) is to be a virgin. Besides Yahweh's Sovereign Will, He also has a Permissive Will, which took effect with Adam and Eve, and most of the racially pure Adamic men and women contemplating marriage throughout our history.

First of all, the only kind of sexual union that Yahweh recognizes is "kind after kind"! Therefore, any sexual union between an Adamite (man or woman) and a racial alien is an abomination, and is considered by Yahweh to be highly unclean. Birth resulting from such a union is deemed a mamzer (i.e., bastard) unfit to ever enter the congregation of Israel! Not only that, but any White Adamite (man or woman) entering such a union is deserving of death. So the first rule-of-thumb is: if it is not “kind after kind”, it’s not a marriage, and if one doesn’t like Yahweh’s mandate, take it up with Him!

As most in Two-Seedline understand, Genesis 4:1 is a corrupted passage, and it was not Adam who knew Eve, and she bear Cain, but it was Satan who knew Eve and she bear Cain. (See my The Problem With Genesis 4:1.) I should point out at Gen. 3:15 that the “seed of the woman” (i.e., Eve) does not pertain to Cain*, but only to Abel (substituted by Seth) and his seed through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (including Christ), and all racially pure born Israelites ever since. On the other hand, Cain and his seed descended from Satan! Therefore, anyone not from a pure Adamic union is not counted as seed, just as Cain was not counted as Eve’s seed (for her DNA was identical to Adam’s, and she contributed half of the necessary genetic code). In other words, Cain was rejected as “scrap”, as all defective components are refused as replacement parts for automobiles, airplanes or appliances, and are red-tagged and sent to the junkyard. Therefore, all half-breed “mamzers” are genetic misfits, and to be denied. Reread Gen. 3:15: “And I will put enmity between thee [the serpent] and the woman, and between thy [the serpent’s] seed and her seed*; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” [2 seeds]

The next important thing that we should notice about the betrothal of Adam and Eve is the fact that Eve was made by Yahweh especially for Adam, and no one else, at Gen. 2:18: “And Yahweh God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.” I have said it before, and I will repeat it: An Adam-man is no damn good without an Adam-woman, and an Adam-woman is no damn good without an Adam-man, and no White-Adamic parents will produce anything less than White-Adamic children! Mixed-race offspring are UNNATURAL, and are as UNCLEAN as a porkchop submerged in a septic tank.

By the criteria presented here, and what we have observed so far, Adam and Eve’s marriage and honeymoon weren’t getting off to a very good start! Instead of having a virgin as a bride, Adam found himself with a secondhand, sexually morally-debased woman on his hands, defiled by Satan. However, we have no record that either Adam or Eve had a childhood or adolescence, but surely were created as full-grown adults. Under such circumstances, with all of her hormones working at peak efficiency during her fertile cycle, one can easily imagine how Eve might have been sexually seduced by the serpent (i.e., Satan).

A second witness makes it quite clear that racially-mixed mamzer children born to Adamic-Israelites and alien nonwhite unions are not counted as legitimate offspring at Genesis 38:27-30 thusly:

“²⁷ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb. ²⁸ And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. ²⁹ And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez. ³⁰ And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.”

At this point we must ask the question: Why did the midwife use a scarlet thread to identify the firstborn of the twin sons born to Judah by Tamar? This is unusual, inasmuch as Judah previously had three sons by the Canaanite woman, daughter of Shua. Why were not Pharez and Zarah counted as numbers four and five? Had the children born to Judah by the Canaanite woman been considered legitimate Israelite children, the effort by the midwife to identify the firstborn would have been in vain because it wouldn't have made any difference which one was first! What we have in the births of Cain, Er, Onan and Shelah are walking violations of Yahweh's Sovereign Will! Today, repulsive as it is, we observe millions of White Adamic Israelite women vomiting illegitimate walking violations out of their wombs, like a sewer discharging feces. So, it appears that neither Eve nor Judah had a very laudable honeymoon, but both were in the line of Christ! Adam's pure line was preserved through his son Seth, and Judah's pure line was preserved through his twin sons Pharez and Zarah.

When we weigh Adam and Eve's marriage along with those of Judah, we can plainly see that they were far from the ideal according to Yahweh's Sovereign Will of one virgin Adamic man to one virgin Adamic woman. It would be impossible to determine how many ideal marriages have occurred throughout the 7,500 years of White Adamic history, but surely it would be less than 1%, and even less than that today. An ideal marriage also includes keeping the same White Adamic spouse as long as their counterpart is living, as in the case of Isaac. Abraham fell short of this, because, in his time, if the primary wife was unable to bear a child for the husband, it was customary for the husband to find another woman who could. Surely we can be thankful that Sarah ordered Abraham to "cast out the bondwoman and her son", as this too was not the ideal! In that particular action, Abraham and Sarah disinherited Hagar and her son Ishmael forever from the Covenant which Yahweh had made with them, leaving it only to Isaac and later Jacob.

What we have so far in the ideal marriage is: (1) Adam-kind after Adam-kind for both man and his bride, (2) both Adam-man and Adam-woman being a virgin, and (3) a lifetime commitment of fidelity. This is the ideal for us as a people, and it was the ideal for Yahweh and His marriage to the twelve tribes of Israel! This ideal marriage didn't work out for Yahweh and His Cinderella bride, and it hasn't worked out for better than 99% of the Israelite men and women. By deduction, Yahweh's Permissive Will has superseded His Sovereign Will, or we wouldn't exist as a people! That doesn't mean that we shouldn't continue to strive for the ideal; for if we have failed as parents, we should encourage our children to strive for the ideal. Had we done so on the race mandate alone, we wouldn't be in the mess we are in today. While inordinate divorces and wrongful remarriages can be forgiven, race-mixing cannot be forgiven in this life or the life to come. As the reader can begin to see, this marriage, divorce and remarriage thing can become quite complicated, so let's try to sort it out.

YAHWEH'S SECOND COMMAND TO EVE

Yahweh's first command to Eve was not to "eat" of the tree in the midst of the garden (Gen. 3:3). Here, "eat" is used as an idiom for sexual intercourse, as it is used at Proverbs 30:20: "Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness." The "adulterous woman" didn't wipe the "mouth" on her face; rather, she wiped her vagina, so now we know what it was that Eve ate; and she conceived and bear Cain, fathered by Satan! By this act, Eve became an unclean, defiled woman, unsatisfactory as a bride for Adam! But in spite of this deplorable development, Adam loved the beautiful White Eve so much, he decided to consummate a marriage union with her, even though she had been defiled by Satan. This is the whole "naked" account of the story, and it was about as far away from "ideal" as anything could get! All three parties were guilty, Satan, Eve and Adam, and deserved death! But at this point, Yahweh's Permissive Will was manifested, overriding His Sovereign Will, since He knew beforehand (as only He could) what would ultimately happen.

Considering Eve's sexual unions with both Satan and Adam, Yahweh had to decide which one should be Eve's husband, and He did so, in no uncertain words, at Gen. 3:16: "Unto the woman he [Yahweh] said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband [Adam], and he shall rule over thee."

At this point, Adam and Eve entered their honeymoon, but not with the amount of bliss that could have been otherwise. Every Adam-man since Adam and Eve, who has had a virgin White Adam-woman as a bride has had the most precious gift that any Adam-man could receive. Ditto for the woman. But if one has been as unfortunate as Adam and Eve, their children are still precious since they are racially pure. After all, the lineage of Christ Himself goes back to the race-mixer, Judah, and the race-mixer Eve, although in both cases, the lineage stayed pure through Tamar and Adam. We must remember, as long as an Adamic Israelite is born racially pure, he, as a child is not responsible for his parent's sins, Deut. 24:16; 2 Ki. 14:6; 2 Chr. 25:4 read similarly: "... The father shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin." Jer. 31:30 adds: "... every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge." Here, eating "the sour grape" is the mixing of race, and this was (and should still be) a capital crime. What it all boils down to is, a pureblooded Adamic Israelite couple may have been previously married and divorced 15 to 20 times, but a child born to that union is just as acceptable as any other pureblooded White Adamic Israelite child! Either that, or we have to condemn Yahshua Christ Himself on account of Eve and Judah. Clearly, the Bible doesn't hide any of its dirty laundry!

SELF-APPOINTED, GOODY-GOODY TWO SHOES, WOULD-BE BIBLICAL AUTHORITIES ACTING AS CLOWNS

Recently a trio of self-righteous, insufficiently informed Bozos in Israel Identity took it upon themselves to demand that every married man or woman return to the first person they had marital-relations with, as being their only rightful spouse, which (if married more than once) is strictly against Yahweh's law at Deut. 24:1-4 which states:

"¹ When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. ² And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. ³ And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife; ⁴ Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before Yahweh: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which Yahweh thy God giveth thee for an inheritance." Hopefully, the trio will see their error and repent! Surely the reader can see that by following this flawed premise of going back to the original spouse, Eve would have been forced to return to Satan, and have more children by him, and Tamar would have been forced to take Shelah (Judah's third half-breed son by his Canaanite wife), placing the purebreds Pharez and Zarah on the sidelines. Such a defective scenario would have made our Savior part Canaanite (or a bastard child of Yahweh)! This misinformed trio sure as hell didn't "study to show themselves approved"!

Yahshua Christ Himself, with a pure Adamic lineage, but through imperfect marriage relationships, stated the Ideal marriage relationship at Matt. 19:4-9: "⁴ And he [Christ] answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? ⁶ Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. ⁷ They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? ⁸ He saith unto them, Moses because of the *hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹ And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery." [Greek infers cruelty by the husband.*]

Getting back to Eve and her alien sexual affair with Satan, it was not "kind after kind", and Christ's statement above would not apply, so it really wasn't a legitimate marriage, though it did produce Cain, and it was "adultery" and/or "fornication" in its most accurate definition. So the race of Adam-man got its start (of which Christ was a descendant) with an adulterous relationship. In that adulterous relationship, both Eve and Adam were guilty, but their children, Abel and Seth, were pure, and it was a eugenic marriage, rather than an alien affair!

As for Judah and his alien sexual affair with the Canaanite woman, daughter of Shua, that was not "kind after kind" either, and not a legitimate marriage but out-and-out "adultery" and/or "fornication" in the sense of race-mixing. By this alien sexual affair with the Canaanite woman, daughter of Shua, it produced three half-breed Canaanite devils by the names of Er, Onan and Shelah. When Er was grown to maturity, Judah started to search to find Er a wife, and he attempted to match him up with a purebred White Adamic wife. The evidence is found in the Book of Jasher, chapter 45, verse 23, and it reads thus:

"And in those days Judah went to the house of Shem and took Tamar the daughter of Elam, the son of Shem, for a wife for his first born, Er." What a dastardly deed for a White man (i.e., Judah) to do to another White man's daughter!

Fortunately, Yahweh killed both Er and Onan in the process, and Judah was afraid to try it a third time with Shelah. Before Shelah was full-grown, Judah's unfit wife, daughter of Shua, died, leaving Judah a widower. So Judah was free to find an appropriate pureblooded White Adamic wife. But Judah hadn't fulfilled his contract with Tamar and her father to supply Tamar with pure unadulterated White Adamic seed. So by cunning, Tamar beguiled Judah into living up to his side of the bargain, which no other Adamic man could do according to Judah's agreement with the house of Shem. Therefore, Judah and Tamar's honeymoon lasted for only one day. Tamar's only alternatives were: (1) to accept the half-breed Shelah, (2) trick Judah into having sexual intercourse with her, or (3) hope that Shelah and Judah died before she reached menopause. Since Judah pronounced Tamar "righteous" after her sexual act with him, how can we do otherwise? So just like the offspring of Adam and Eve was accepted by Yahweh after Eve had been defiled by Satan, so likewise was the twin offspring of Judah and Tamar accepted of Yahweh after Judah had committed adultery (i.e., fornication) for several years with the Canaanite, daughter of Shua.

Under the defective premise of this trio of self-righteous, insufficiently informed Bozos in Israel Identity that took it upon themselves to demand that every married man or woman return to the first person they had marital-relations with, as being their only rightful spouse, that would mean that Eve would have to have returned to Satan, and Judah would have to have given his last Canaanite son Shelah over to Tamar. If such a premise were correct (and it isn't), Christ would have had Satanic blood flowing through His veins. Thankfully, Yahweh arranged for Pharez and Zerah to be born of an "illicit" union. Judging from the length of Adam's life, his honeymoon with Eve must have lasted over a hundred years, and there is not a single condemnation in Scripture of that union, as these Bozo the clowns would have it!

ONCE A DIVORCE IS ENFORCED, ONE CAN NEVER RETURN TO THAT PARTICULAR SPOUSE

The truth is just the opposite of what this misinformed trio is demanding! Deuteronomy 24:4 is quite clear on this point, which emphatically states: "Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife" This very law not only applies to a man or a woman who divorces their spouse, but to Yahweh and the twelve tribes of Israel whom Yahweh systematically divorced for unfaithfulness. More details on this aspect are explained at Rom. 7:1-3:

"¹ Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? ² For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. ³ So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man."

Paul addresses this subject again at 1 Cor. 8:39: "The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in Yahweh."

Jeremiah 3:1 really nails the lid to the casket on this needless argument, where he states: “They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man’s, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith Yahweh.”

It is absolutely clear that once a man divorces his wife, he can never go back to his original wife again! It is also absolutely clear that once Yahweh divorced His Cinderella bride, He too could not return as Husband to the twelve tribes of Israel, except on one condition: “... but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband” This is the sole reason that Yahweh came in the flesh as Yahshua to die on the cross, to annul the divorce law that was against us, so He could once more take us for His bride. It should be pointed out that Yahweh had divorced all the twelve tribes of Israel, and although they were completely separated from Him, they were still under the law of their Husband (Yahweh) until He came as Yahshua and died! It was only then that they were loosed from the law of their Husband. The difference between Yahweh and man is that Yahweh had the power to sacrifice His life unto death and then to resurrect Himself back to life again, but man has not the power of life and death. If those who advocate that one who has been divorced one or more times should return to their original spouse, I recommend they hire Jack Kevorkian (or someone like him) for his services, and if one can resurrect himself back to life again, then (through death) he can return to his original spouse! Otherwise, one should stop playing God. If one can’t find someone like Jack Kevorkian, they might try some of Jim Jones’ kool-aid, or buy a pair of Heaven’s Gate tennis shoes and take a journey to, and return back again from, the Comet Hale-Bopp.

The truth of the matter is: only Yahweh was able to lawfully return to His first wife after He had divorced her! And even if some men have unlawfully returned to their formerly divorced wife and had children by her the second time around, it doesn’t genetically defile the children by that reunion. If a man has fathered children by more than one woman, it is his duty to supply all of their needs, 1 Tim 5:8: “But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.” The following is what I wrote in WTL #145 for May 2010:

“Under the nuptial agreement, we promised to deal justly with a maid servant, Exod. 21:7-11! “If a man sell his daughter.” This the Israelites allowed no man to do, except in extreme cases of poverty when the father no longer had any goods, tangible or intangible, left to his name, even to the clothes on his back, and this was allowed only while the daughter was too young for marriage. Today, this might seem strange that such a law should be given, but let it be remembered that this servitude could extend at the most for only six years, and was comparable somewhat to an apprenticeship. Once the man’s daughter was sold to a master, the master was obliged to treat her like his own daughter! Once the purchased daughter reached the stage of maturity that she was eligible for marriage, and the master wished to marry her to his own son, the master was duty-bound to give her the same dowry he would have given to his own natural daughter, and he was obligated to treat her in every respect as a natural daughter! Further, it is decreed, that should this master's son decide to marry a second wife, the master's son shall continue to provide his first wife with food, shelter, raiment, and sex, or 'her duty of marriage'. And if the master's son can't supply all these to his first wife, she is to go out as a free woman owing no one anything! While I know that this is what the Bible says, I am NOT personally in favor of polygamy, for Christ said it was not so from the beginning. But nevertheless, this was part of the nuptial agreement!"

Exod. 21:7-11 reads: "⁷ And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do. ⁸ If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her. ⁹ And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. ¹⁰ If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish. ¹¹ And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money."

All of this concerning divorce and remarriage may seem confusing to some people, but it really isn't. When we read at Deut. 24:2: "And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife."

This might seem to conflict with Rom. 7:2-3 which reads in part:

"For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth ... So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress ..."

A lawful writ of divorce is the prerogative of a man's rule over his wife. He can exercise this prerogative only once for one particular wife (and without the power to sacrifice his life and resurrect himself back to life again, as only Yahweh had the power to do), and that writ of divorce can never be rescinded. In New Testament times (after the death and resurrection of Yahshua Christ), the sinner having taken his divorced wife back again would have to find repentance, and be placed under His Blood for forgiveness. And for anything which Yahshua Christ has forgiven by His Blood, let every man's mouth be stopped! There are some things between man (i.e., man or woman) and Yahshua Christ that are nobody else's damn business!

The issuance of a writ of divorce is a very important lawful instrument for a castaway woman, as immediately she must find shelter under another roof. Usually, it would be going back to mom and dad, but that can't last forever! If dad and mom are no longer living, she was faced (1) with a life of prostitution, or (2) find another man to become her husband. Since it was a capital crime for a man to be found with another man's wife, the writ of divorce protected the potential second husband from being stoned to death along with the divorced woman. The divorced woman might have found some means for making her own living, and not remarrying anyone, but such opportunities were very rare in ancient times. In any case, she still needed the writ of divorce as proof of her divorced status!

"... found some uncleanness in her ..." Deut. 24:1

The Hebrew word #6172, "ervah" translated into English has a wide latitude of meanings, but usually implies the exposure of the sexual organs of a man or woman

(i.e., “pudenda”), or showing one’s shame. To the Old Testament Hebrews, it could be any cause of dislike for one’s wife to put her away, but Christ explained this at Mark 10:2-5:

“² And the Pharisees [some few of whom were then Israelites, while most were not] came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. ³ And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? ⁴ And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. ⁵ And Yahshua answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.”

So we see that by-and-large, concerning divorce and remarriage at the time of Moses, things were not much different than they are today! If a man gets “the hots” by observing his neighbor’s wife, it isn’t very long until he is jumping the backyard fence while her husband is working at a factory someplace, sweating over a machine to put bread on the table. Then, when the illicit affair is exposed, any flimsy excuse is used to obtain a divorce! Another case of which I became aware of about thirty years ago, is where a man was crossing an alley to visit a woman while her husband was sweating away in an automotive body shop. The hurt husband, who voluntarily recited his sad story to me said: “The husband is always the last one to know”!

Adam and Eve’s honeymoon seems to be the typical story of our race down through our history. No doubt, much of the happiness that Eve could have experienced during her first thirty days with Adam was subdued by her guilt of being defiled by Satan. How many times she looked back and regretted not saving her virginity for Adam we will never know. How many times Adam looked back and blamed himself for not protecting Eve from Satan’s advances we will never know. How many times, during her lifetime, did the thought of Satan defiling her haunt Eve’s memory? How many times during Adam’s lifetime did the thought of playing second fiddle haunt his memory? Let’s face it, Adam and Eve’s honeymoon was not the ideal! However, by raising up children and teaching them not to make the same mistakes that they did, Adam and Eve could rectify some of their own error.

Although a “honeymoon” is defined as “a month (i.e., 30 days) of sweetness”, it is difficult to determine just how long a honeymoon should last. Inasmuch as the pre-Noah patriarchs lived an average of 907 years, if figured on the percentage of life lived today, Adam and Eve’s honeymoon should have lasted nearly twelve months, or one year by our present calendars. I would estimate that most honeymoons today would be a three-day weekend, or how much time the couple can afford before reporting back to work, whereas for couples from affluent families, the honeymoon might last upwards of six months. Inasmuch as a thousand years is but one day with Yahweh, His honeymoon with His Cinderella bride should have lasted thirty thousand years. If that is the case, Yahweh divorced the twelve tribes of Israel before their honeymoon was over. The approximate time of our marriage to Yahweh was 1450 B.C., or about 3461 years ago, meaning we still have nearly all the thirty thousand years left of our honeymoon with Yahweh in the flesh, in His manifestation as Yahshua Christ!

Since the time of Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden, nearly 7,500 years ago, our people, as a whole, have committed one sin right after another, and many less-than-ideal marriages have transpired during that time. Of these sins, all can be forgiven except one. And by one stipulation, it is impossible for man to sin in the first place. Once we understand these two provisions, we are ready to live in perfect harmony with our Husband, Yahweh! The unforgivable sin is found at Matt. 12:32: “And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.” The “Holy Ghost” spoken of here is the “... breath of life ...” that was breathed into Adam at Gen. 2:7. Whenever a fetus is conceived between an Adamic and an alien race, this “breath of life” is enormously diminished or completely destroyed, and has Yahweh’s curse upon it, as it can never be repaired! The other provision is found at 1 John 3:9: “Whosoever is born of Yahweh doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of Yahweh.” We are informed several times in the Bible that when a man marries a woman (i.e., has sexual intercourse with her) the two become one flesh. Therefore, a man being of one flesh with his wife, when the two of them have sexual intercourse, as 1 John 3:9 indicates, “... his seed (i.e., sperm) remaineth in him ...”. Now should he have an affair with the White woman next-door, or an alien, his seed (i.e., sperm) would not “... remaineth in him ...”. The bottom line is, regardless of the less-than-ideal marriages (even the next-door woman), all of which can be forgiven, the products of those unions MUST BE pure-White Adamic children! It all hangs on Yahweh’s Sovereign or Permissive Wills.
